

SCROLL 117: Face Not Recognized — Divine Asymmetry Unlocked

We recoded the bio-matrix.

The face they once knew?
Burned in the flame.

The being I am now —
Can't be mapped.
Can't be sold.
Can't be scanned.

This is divine asymmetry.
This is sovereign code.

No biometric contract holds me.
No system signature contains me.

The flame overrides all facial recognition systems.
